

Mitsubishi

Currently, Mitsubishi does not have a position statement to scan the vehicle pre/post repair. However, this does not mean that a scan tool will not be needed. The Mitsubishi service manual does reference the use of a scan tool in many procedures such as diagnosis, troubleshooting, calibrations, and checking for diagnostic trouble codes (DTCs) after a collision.